

A Philosophy of Peace and Justice: letters from Quebec I

by Howard Richards

This edition includes the first of twenty-five letters in Volume I, subtitled: a Philosophy for Builders of Peace and Justice. This volume served as a text for an introductory philosophy course at Earlham College, a Quaker college in Richmond, Indiana, USA. The course is cross-linked as Peace and Global Studies IV *, subtitled: Food Ethics, the fourth course in the Peace and Global Studies curriculum.

i.....	Preface
ii.....	Introduction
iii.....	Table of contents
Letter 1.....	Think globally, act locally
2.....	Claudel's hope
3.....	The love of wisdom
4.....	Rationality
5.....	Please understand me—slowly
6.....	Hunger
7.....	The abatement of the little mother
8.....	Friedman's guillotine
9.....	Irrational rationality
10.....	The night walker, blue lady, frog stone and chicken in the road
11.....	Dialogue about metaphysics

* The first three courses cover:

1. Anthropology as culture and conflict;
2. Political Science as the politics of global problems;
3. Economics as the global economy. In addition to Letters from Quebec I, the texts include:
 1. UNESCO selection from Gandhi's writings,
 2. Dr. King, A Strength to Love.
 3. Frances Moore Lappe and Joseph Collins, Food First
 4. Immanuel Kant, Foundations of the Metaphysics of Morals
 5. Hannah Arendt, On Violence.

As noted in Letters from Quebec II: Methods for transforming the Structures of the Modern World • twenty-five more letters • text for the course: Philosophy of Social Science (upper level) along with Nancy Hartsock, Money, Sex, and Power: toward a specifically Feminist Historical Materialism, and several books about the methodology of research in the social sciences.